and brands the opportunity to share their expertise and passion with the world.”

While the event is free to register, Fiverr is also partnering with the Ukrainian Red Cross to bring awareness to the situation there and encourage attendees to give charitable donations during the Now Playing event to help support Ukrainian relief efforts.

“It would be dismissive of us to ignore the larger problems going on in the world and we have a robust community of musicians in Ukraine,” said Brent Messenger, Vice President of Public Policy and Community Engagement. “Fiverr’s purpose is to help anyone build their business, brand or dreams, and we want to ensure that we continue to support them and their ability to pursue their passions. This is why we’re encouraging attendees to support the Ukrainian people during this conflict.”
